EXPERIENCE : INDIA
UNDER THE MANGO TREE
CULTURE + CULINARY | SIX SPICES
ASIA PACIFIC WEEKS 2017

Back in the days while we were growing up, in India everyone simply knew where the good food was and went about eating it: at our own tables; down the by lanes of the small towns and cities. Somewhere along the timeline with the movement, migration and the economic change, our deep ties with food got loosened as we moved to new identities in the lands beyond the Seas.

Six spices is an event which is specially created for the Gallery to rediscover these connections; it is also an offer to an access to discuss on arts over authentic homecooked food. "Cultural & Culinary" events invites people/ organizations to explore and experience authenticity. Food acts as a part of the live performance and you are an actor in it.

"A drawing is an autobiographical record of one's discovery of an event - either seen, remembered or imagined. A ,finished' work is an attempt to construct an event in itself."

-John Berger, an Art critic, a writer and a painter.

Every 8 weeks, we exhibit international artists already garnering attention for their work. This is a chance to discover some of the exciting artists at our Gallery and to identify strong, fresh and also at times experienced talents. Art brings with it an understanding of the times and a society.

Gather your experience with the works of JOERDIS MAHANTA whose solo exhibition BETWEEN THE SUNRISE AND THE SUNSET is interestingly influenced through her stay in the indian subcontinent and observe that how in the stance of movement we are continuously forming new inner realities, taking some new experiences and combining it to the memory. Discuss and explore. The artist is present.

Limited Seats. Participation only with confirmed reservation: info@utmt.net

ABOUT US

Running our Graphic Design Studio and an International Art Gallery, we have set ourselves some social goals and are consequently involved in projects of handwoven Schawls from Srinagar, Kashmir and Chanderi in India. Our contribution is to preserve the traditional handweaving and contribute successfully towards income for the households of the handweavers and their families. Each Schawl that you invest in is supporting the handwork textile industry in India. At the same time the Gallery has together with its artists initiated a cards campaign through which we support initiatives for Refugees in Berlin.

Our professional involvement in designing for Daimler AG, Embassy of India, Projects of Welt Hunger Hilfe, AWO International and Humanrights projects for women prostitutes and their reintegration in normal life have been an enriching experience.

Associated with Awardwinning publishing House TARA BOOKS – our gallery shop showcases their extremely prestigious books for young and grown ups- which supports the inclusive business practices with a social background. Selected award winning indian photography books and LOVE TRAVELS, the travel guides for those wanting to experience luxurious India - are to be discovered exclusively here in our shop in the
