SINO-GERMAN GARDENING DAY: April 28th, 2018

– Workshop and urban gardening tour by CITYMAKERS Urban Farming Incubator

The Urban Farming Incubator (Berlin/Shanghai) is an interdisciplinary team of Sino-German Citymakers offering a platform for knowledge exchange between China and Germany – within the CITYMAKERS China-Germany programme.

On our website www.urbanfarmingincubator.com you can find a knowledge base of successful urban farming cases in Germany and China. Furthermore, we've started to materialize the gained insights into specific urban farming demo places in Shanghai and Berlin. We would like to share our practical experiences of intercultural urban farming in the Max Pflanzen Garden, our Berlin demo-garden, during the Asia-Pacific Week, through a cross-cultural gardening day including a guided tour through various urban farming places in Mitte and a Sino-German gardening workshop.
